

URGENT
High Potential Incident Announcement
Brief Account of Incident: At 05:42 on 30th August 2003, a scaffolder fell while working on skid beams on a platform. He was working together with another scaffolder. The job was to loosen bolts on a temporary installation. The person fell from the skid beams to a platform on top of the main deck. The total height difference is 13.5 metres. The fall was broken underway. The patient experienced pain in legs, hips, back and stomach region. Activity in the area was stopped immediately. The offshore emergency team was mobilized and was in place within minutes. The nurses from nearby ports came to the scene. Stabilization of the patient was started immediately. The patient was transported to [REDACTED] The onshore Emergency Response Team was mobilized. The police and other local authorities were informed and briefed about the incident approximately 1 hour after the incident. The patient was medivaced with the [REDACTED] helicopter to the hospital in [REDACTED]. The incident is classified as severity "A".
Potential Outcome: The person suffered injuries to his hips and legs. The injured person had undergone an operation. The injured person could have been killed.
Likely Causes: The cause is to be investigated by the investigation teams.
Action Taken: Operation in the area was stopped. Area cordoned off. Onshore emergency team mobilized. Police notified. Investigation teams are traveling to the site to perform a root cause analysis of the accident.			